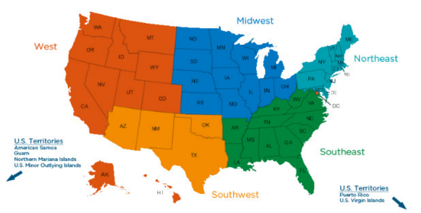
Find cultural activities in a U.S. state.



If you're hosting one of InterExchange's international participants, we encourage you to act as a "cultural ambassador" and share all the aspects of your local community that will provide unique insights into American culture. Whether you coordinate an outing to a local museum, a hike in a national park or a dinner enjoying local cuisine, you'll be contributing to developing better relationships between the U.S. and all the countries who participate in cultural exchange programs.

InterExchange. Local Culture. Global Relationships.
